

rig for cruising, but the boat would stand fully another 100 feet without being over-canvased.

I have shown the plans to several Wellington yachtsmen, and they are unanimous that she is just the thing for our waters, and one of them expressed a determination to get one built. His order will be placed shortly. I shall be pleased to hear from anyone interested, and to answer any inquiries.

Details of 20-Footer.

| | |
|--------------------------------|-------------------|
| Length O.A. | 20ft. |
| Beam | 9ft. |
| Draft | 3ft. 6in. |
| Freeboard Greatest | 3ft. 3in. |
| Freeboard Least | 2ft. |
| Headroom | 4ft. |
| Accommodation | Sleep 4 on Berths |
| Area of Sail for Cruising | 320ft. |
| Lead on Keel | 1200 lbs. |

Yacht to be built of one 3/4-in. skin kauri, and any other particulars you may wish to include.

Total cost complete, about £90.

