

If you're wondering who this JAG MORITZ with that batty 'Boot Up' single is, we can reveal that the shadowy disco star is in fact former Dude, Dickhead and DD Smash-person IAN MORRIS. When he's not playing in bands, putting out mystery records and working at Marmalade Studios, "Strike" Morris likes to follow the British soccer scene. Here he catches up during the last DD Smash tour.

Nona, the debut solo album from one-time Labelle songwriter NONA HENDRYX, caught a few ears last year. She's back with a harder, more rhythmic album called The Art of Defense. She wrote all the songs and collaborated again with New York funk team MATERIAL on its recording. Not only that, but she's looking younger than she has for years!

With BILLY IDOL gracing our cover recently we thought it might be a good idea to show him the way he was way back in 1978 (when he was a tender 22) with GENERATION X. From left are: Tony James (bass), Idol (guitar, vocals), Bob Andrews (guitar) and Mark Laff (drums). Innit funny how they all had longer hair ... ?

Despite a brief period in the wars, MARGINAL ERA are looking healthy again and have been playing live — at present, with a drum machine, to promote their new single 'You Fascinate'. They are (from left) Paul Agar (bass), Richard Newcombe (keyboards) and Mark (guitar). If you're at college in Auckland you might just get paid a visit by these three sometime soon.
