

MIKE OLDFIELD

DISCOVERY

In the decade since the release of the pioneering Tubular Bells, Mike Oldfield has proved to be one of Britain's most consistent and enduring artists.

This stunning new album features the vocals of Maggie Reilly and Barry Palmer and includes the hit single 'To France'.

It confirms his position at the very pinnacle of contemporary music.

The long awaited debut — side one displays a considerable jazz influence with the trumpet of Kenny Wheeler and the piano of Riuichi Sakamoto. Side two changes quite dramatically in mood, influenced by Steve Jansen's percussion, Holger Czukay and the avant garde trumpet player, Jon Hassell.

"The excruciating wait has been totally worth it"

'WHO FEELS IT KNOWS IT'

Rita Marley is an important and influential artist in her own right.

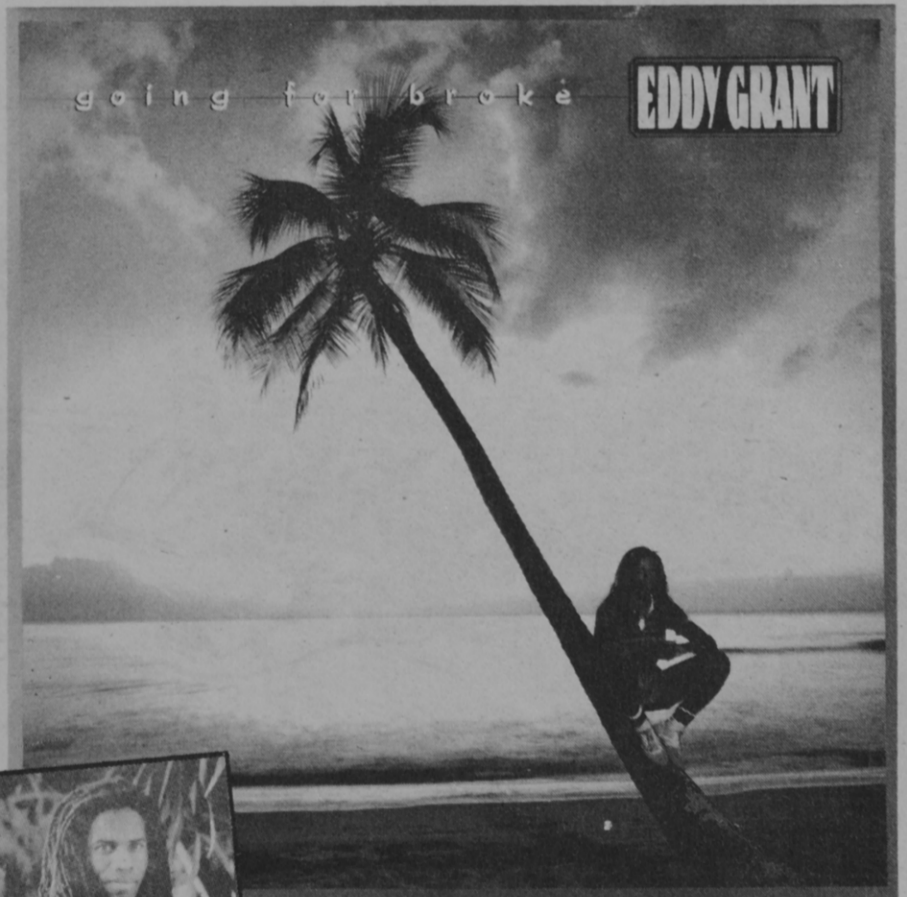

'Who Feels It Knows It' is her solo debut and ample evidence of her talent.

Now available for the first time in NZ, it features the smash hit 'ONE DRAW' (an ode to the wonders of 'erb), which was the hottest selling reggae release in 1982 in the UK & USA.
