LET'S GET LOST

THE CHET BAKER STORY

Bruce Weber's film "Let's Get Lost" documents the fast-lane, low-life style of jazz trumpeter Chet Baker. After 30 years of rootlessness and heroin addiction, Baker fell to his death from a hotel window last May. Weber, whose friendship with Baker developed during filming, here describes the life and death of the Cool School's one-time principal.

THE THIN BLUE LINE

A FILM BY ERROL MORRIS

Morris has broken cinematic ground with his motion picture THE THIN BLUE LINE. In a behind-the-scenes role as director/detective, creates a fascinating reconstruction and investigation of a brutal and senseless murder.

Morris assembles diverse interviews, photo montages, film clips and re-enactments of the crime. THIS FILM SHOULD NOT BE MISSED
