STEVE SALAS COLOURCODE

— "Colourcode"

You'll swear you're hearing the ghost of Jimi Hendrix in STEVE SALAS BUT THIS EXCITING NEW ARTIST IS HIS OWN MAN. Having worked and produced with such big names as Bootsy Collins, Rod Stewart, Was (Not Was) and Warrant, STEVE SALAS' across the board experience shines on this explosive expressive album.
CHECK IT OUT!

TROUBLE

— "Trouble"

Are you looking for trouble?? This Chicago band's first album for the Def American label — the previous three with independents, has received with critical acclaim. Produced by Rick Rubin himself, these guys are a polished, digitally precise Black Sabbath.
GET INTO TROUBLE!

Hothouse Flowers take their unique brand of rock 'n' roll to new heights of inspiration with their latest album, HOME.

Includes the new hit single: "Give It Up".

JOAN ARMATRADING

"HEARTS AND FLOWERS"

AN IDEAL OFFERING FOR THOUGHTFUL LISTENERS IN TODAY'S ADULT ALTERNATIVE AUDIENCE!

Renowned for her distinctive folk-soul sound, Joan Armatrading is back with her new album, "Hearts and Flowers". Written, arranged and produced by Joan, this album is full of assured, mature work that only an accomplished artist could make!

OLETA ADAMS "CIRCLE OF ONE"

Sounding like a perfected version of Gladys Knight and Dionne Warwick, this debut album from the lady that put the soul into Tears For Fears' last album is destined to become a classic.

"CIRCLE OF ONE" has received across the board rave reviews - Oleta's rich lush voice and songwriting talents prove her arrival as a solo artist is long overdue. Move over Anita Baker - Oleta Adams is here.
