

everything but the girls covers e.p.

love is strange · tougher than the rest · time after time · alison

This unique British duo cover four of their favourite songs — 'Love is Strange', Springsteen's 'Tougher Than the Rest', Cyndi Lauper's 'Time After Time' and Elvis Costello's 'Alison'.

Not standard pop "product", this is unusual music from an artist with an achingly beautiful voice with songs springing from Celtic roots. Here the creative impulse ("A Visit") is explored.

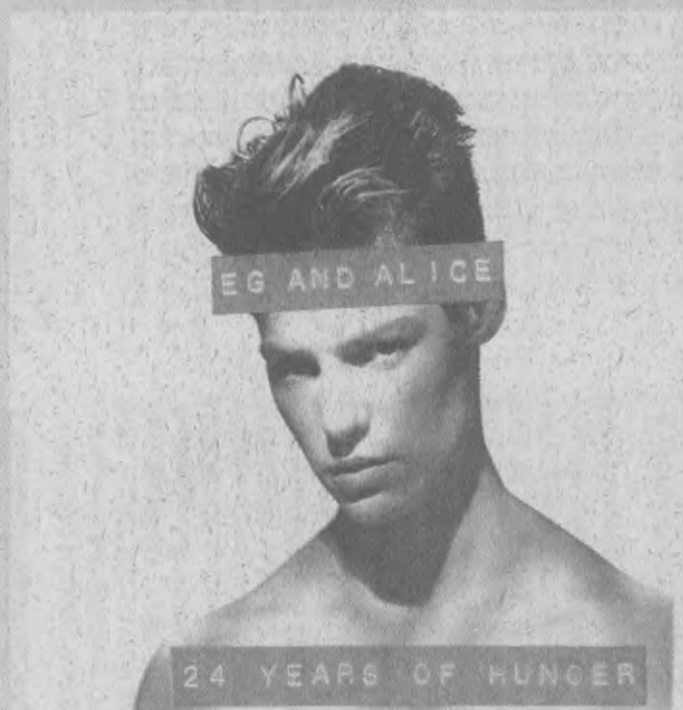

New CURE single 'High' released March 16. The album 'Wish' to be released April 20.

Little Earthquakes

One of the 90s' exceptional new talents as a writer and a singer. A stunning voice and a vision of self-liberation from personal oppression. First single is 'Silent All These Years'.

Eg White and Alice Temple are a remarkable duo inhabiting a world somewhere between Steely Dan and Sly Stone and Country and Soul. The single is 'Doesn't Mean That Much to Me'.

Randy Crawford works with Michael J. Powell, best known for producing Anita Baker. A perfect collaboration. First single is Randy's unique rendition of Journey's hit 'Who's Crying Now'. Try the duet with Italy's Zucchero.

"Kirya" is Ofra Haza's third album to be released internationally. This new album is Ofra's work with Don Was (Bonnie Raitt, Paula Abdul etc). Another fine, distinctive album.
