

ROBERT TRIMBLE OF INGLEWOOD

- FORSTER, W. E. Speech . . . on the slaveholder's Rebellion; and Professor Goldwin Smith's Letter on the Morality of the emancipation proclamation. 15p. Union & Emancipation Society, Manchester, 1863.
- WADDINGTON, John. The American crisis in relation to slavery. 32p. Stock, London. 1862.
- POTTER, Thomas Bayley. Report of the proceedings at a Conversazione . . . The report of Dr. Massie respecting his anti-slavery mission to the American clergy and churches. 33p. Union and Emancipation Society, Manchester, 1863.
- NEWMAN, F. W. Character of the Southern States of America . . . 14p. Union & Emancipation Society, Manchester, 1863.
- SECOND ANNUAL REPORT of the Freedmen and Soldiers' Relief Association. 8p. Chronicle Print, Washington, D.C., 1864.
- NARRATIVE of the cruise of the Alabama and list of her officers and men. By one of the crew. 16p. London, 1864.
-

NOVEMBER 25, 1941

ALTHOUGH all members received notice of the Annual Meeting, it will be of interest to know that the motions regarding incorporation and the acceptance of the Sir Hugh Walpole Memorial Fund established by Miss Julie Tomlinson of Nelson, were duly passed. The meeting expressed its great appreciation of the helpful services of Mr A. E. Currie as Honorary Solicitor in connection with these matters.

The election of officers resulted as follows:—Professor I. A. Gordon, President; Messrs J. M. A. Ilott, A. E. Mulgan, C. Q. Pope, P. A. Lawlor, and J. C. Andersen, Committee. Secretary, Mr P. A. Lawlor; Assistant Secretary, Mr A. G. Bagnall.

Mr C. Quentin Pope gave an extremely informative talk on