

Fraser Radcliff and a small Everest tent at glacier camp, 1 November 1938. This was the second high camp on the glacier below the summit of Sansato. Everest tents were developed by mountaineer and mountain-equipment manufacturer Robert Burns for British Himalayan expeditions in the 1930s. Photographer: Dora de Beer (ATL ref. 1/4-083350-F)