

TABLE I

Birds in Archaeological Sites

	SITE
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18
MOA
D. nov. zealandiae		x																x
struthoides		x		x														x
giganteus		x		x	x
torosus
robustus										x
maximus	x					(x)	(x)			(x)
gazella				x
P. elephantopus	x		x			(x)	x	x
mappini		x		x	x													x
septentrionalis		x		x
oweni
Eu. gravis	x		x			x	x	x		x	x	x	x	x	x		x
geranoides		x		(x)	x
exilis					x													x
tane		x
curtus		x			x
n.sp	x					x
Em. crassus	x		x			x	(x)	x	x			x
huttoni	x							x
A. didiformis	x	x					x		x				x				x
parvus
M. didinus	x		(x)							x
benhami
EXTINCT BIRDS
EX. CRGW	x	x		x			x	x		x				x
takahe	x	x		x											x
gt. rail		x	x	x
sm. rail		x		x						x	x			x			x
eagle		x							x
swan								x						x	x
coot				x			x			x
goose									x								x
duck		x
hawk				x			x									x

1, Pounaweia (South Otago); 2, Ohawe (South Taranaki); 3, Waimataitai (North Otago); 4, Kaupokonui (South Taranaki); 5, Te Rangatapu (South Taranaki); 6, Pleasant River (North Otago); 7, Tai Rua (North Otago); 8, Wairau (Marlborough); 9, Heaphy River (Westland); 10, King's Rock (South Otago); 11, Shepherd's Creek (North Otago); 12, Awamoa (North Otago); 13, Tumbledown Bay (South Canterbury); 14, Native Island (Stewart Island); 15, Ototara (North Otago); 16, Tahunanui (Nelson); 17, Dusky Sound (Fiordland); 18, Whiritoa (Coromandel). ()—probable.

Sites are arranged in order of decreasing age from left to right. Insufficient data are available for a more definite sequence.