

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The author wishes to thank Professor Knox, Zoology Department, University of Canterbury, for his advice and assistance throughout this study. Assistance with boatwork was given by Mr I. Mannering and Mr D. D. McGregor, Zoology Department, and Mr A. R. Estcourt, Engineering School, University of Canterbury. Thanks are also due to Mr J. W. Brodie, Director, N.Z. Oceanographic Institute, for his criticism of the manuscript, Miss P. Lawrence, N.Z. Oceanographic Institute, for help with draughting, and Mr J. J. Whalan, Information Service, D.S.I.R., for photography.
