Feeling Tribute to Late Mr. George Williams.

In the death of the late Mr. George Williams the children of St. Hilda's have lost a very dear friend, and he will be sadly missed. He was at all times ready to help with a cheerful word, and particularly of great assistance to Miss Waller, the matron, in the general happiness of the children. Since the Home was founded in Otane his cheerful personality was ever welcome and the older children looked to him as one who had their future at all times uppermost in his heart.

He who walks alone is sometimes in bad company.

Joys are our wings, sorrows are our spurs.—Richter.

Whatever glory you may lose in the eyes of men you will find again with God.—S. Phillip Neri.

Parental Responsibility.

After all the good instruction that can be given, example must go hand in hand with precept.

If children receive solemn injunctions against a vice which they see their parents practise, or exhortation to the performance of a duty they see them neglect, the precept will be more likely to excite ridicule in the youthful mind than observance.

—Mrs. King.

Our Way.

It is easy to be amiable when we can have our own way at the same time, but to give up one's own will in order to please others is more difficult, and is a crucial test of our motives.—O. Prescott Hillier.

Beauty unaccompanied by virtue is as a flower without perfume.

Courage consists not in blindly overlooking danger, but in seeing it and conquering it.—Richter.
