

Napier might so develop that a very vigorous parish might grow up and a worthy Church be erected on the same section. The section had been sold to the parish by Mr W. Nelson for the nominal sum of five shillings, strict cash, and the cost of the building was £1209, of which £500 was still a debt. The room will be known as St. Luke's Church Room.

Porangahau News.

The Ladies' Guild have decided to hold a Bazaar in Porangahau on Friday, December 10th. It is hoped that all those interested in the Church and its work will do their utmost to make the Bazaar a success. If each one will do his or her share success should not be difficult. Unfortunately we cannot go ahead without money.

The Synod of the Diocese has recommended that every parish should adopt the Duplex scheme for raising funds. This will, as soon as possible, be placed before the vestry, and if it receives their support, as we trust it will, meetings will be called in the different centres of the parish, so as to place before the people the whole scheme. If it is adopted it will mean a big increase in our finances for the Church here and abroad.

W A N T E D .

CAPTAIN BALL (Church Army), who is working amongst the men engaged on the Hydro-electric Works at Waikaremoana and on the East Coast Railway, requires urgently:—

A PORTABLE FOLDING ORGAN.

Also—

BOOKS, etc., may be sent direct to the use of the men.

Will any friend who is able to provide THE ORGAN please inform Archdeacon Brocklehurst, Box 227, Napier?

BOOKS, etc., may be sent direct to CAPTAIN BALL, Hydro-electric Works, Waikaremoana.

IN CHURCH ARMY WORKSHOPS.

BADLY Disabled Soldiers make Wreaths in artificial flowers from 10s to 20s each.

The C.A. place them on soldiers' graves without extra charge (on birthday if required).

Also Rose Leaf Confetti for weddings, in boxes containing 1000 petals for 1s 6d.

And Copper or Brass Tea or other Trays, Fruit Dishes, Table Mats, etc., from 4s to 25s. Apply to—

SECRETARY,

Church Army, Box 20, Ormondville.

ALL SAINTS' DAY.

They passed before; they trod the way we tread,

A way of weary travel, but their eyes

Still strained to see through depths of gloomy skies

The flashing gates of pearl. All tears they shed

Are changed to deathless blossoms on our way;

All precious drops their wounded feet have bled

Light with fair lamps the lonely path we tread;

And still, but most upon this holy day,

They hover near, and swell our faltering song,

And waft our humble litanies on high, And bring us near to God.

—A. J. Church.

Thee, and to trust in Thee, and at last bring us to Thy Home in Heaven, which Thou hast prepared for those that love Thee—through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

life always loving and helping others in health or in sickness, in happiness or in sorrow. For Thy sake who sharest all Thy children's joys and griefs. Amen.

walk in the way of truth and peace, and at last be numbered with Thy saints in glory everlasting; through Thy merits, O blessed Jesus, Thou gracious Bishop and Shepherd of our souls, Who art with the Father and the Holy Ghost one God, world without end.

4. FOR SICK AND POOR AND DYING.

O Merciful Saviour, who when on earth, didst give help and healing to all who came to Thee; we commend to Thy Pity and Protection the sick, the poor and homeless, the desolate and broken-hearted. Heal them, feed them, shield and comfort them. Help us to bear the burdens of others and to do our part in all works of mercy, for Thy Sake, who took our infirmities and bore our sicknesses. Amen.

FOR UNITY.

O Almighty God, Who hast built Thy Church upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being the chief corner stone: Grant that, by the operation of Thy Holy Spirit, all Christians may be so joined together in unity of mind, and in the bond of peace, that they may be an holy temple acceptable unto Thee: And especially to the part of Thy Church to which we belong, give the abundance of Thy grace; that with one heart we may desire the prosperity of Thy holy Apostolic Church, and with one mouth may profess the faith once delivered to the Saints. Defend us from the sins of heresy and schism; let not the foot of pride come nigh to hurt us nor the hand of the ungodly to cast us down: And grant that the course of this world may be so peaceably ordered by Thy governance that Thy Church may joyfully serve Thee in all godly quietness; that so we may Remember, Lord, the land in which we dwell, and every city and country and the faithful who inhabit them. Remember, Lord, them that voyage and travel, that are sick, that are laboring, that are in prison and those that are persecuted for righteousness sake. Remember, O Lord, our Christian brethren of the Eastern Orthodox Churches who suffer under the tyranny of oppressors, especially in Russia and in Turkey, and all anywhere who are persecuted and oppressed. Grant to them courage to confess Thy Name, to defend the cause of Thy Church even unto death with steadfast endurance and unquenchable faith; and to all who die for Thee give, we beseech Thee, the Crown of victory through Him who endured the cross for us despising the shame and is now set at Thy Right Hand on high.

5. FOR FRIENDSHIP.

O Lord Jesus Christ, who hast called Thy disciples not servants, but friends. Bind together the children of this Parish in a holy and lasting friendship, give them the Spirit of true comradeship in which lies strength and happiness that the friendships begun here may be continued hereafter.

Grant that they may go through