"Willard,"

Wakefield St., Adelaide,

13th May, 1915.

Dear Miss Henderson,—The Ninth Triennial Convention of the Australasian W.C.T.U., now assembled in South Australia, desire to express their deep appreciation of your loving greetings, and desire to extend to our New Zealand comrades warm and loving greetings, and pray God will abundantly bless you in all your noble efforts for God, Home, and Humanity.—I am, yours in loving bonds,

(Mrs) NELLIE TRICKETT,

Letter Writer to Convention.

ONE WIN ONE CAMPAIGN.

26 Tui Street,

Fendalton, Christchurch,

May 12, 1915.

Dear White Ribbon Sisters,—

At the Annual Convention, held in March last, it was resolved that our Unions should be asked to undertake a "One Win One" campaign, and so endeavour to double our membership during the present year. We need the help of every woman if we are to free our country from a foe more terrible than any our Empire has to face upon the battlefield.

Now it is a matter beyond dispute that at the last poll a great many women must either have refrained from voting or have voted against National Prohibition and Local No License, and we, as women, should make it our duty to win the woman's vote.

The final step towards this lies in strengthening our Unions and widening our influence. This is the reason why we are entering upon the "One-win-one" campaign. Will your Union do its part?

I would suggest: (1) That members should be individually urged to do their utmost to get others to join your Union; (2) That a supply of W.C.T.U. pledges should be obtained from Mrs Dearlove, and that the members who are willing to endeavour to "win one," or more should be supplied with these pledges; (3) If your Union is large enough the "win one" members might be divided into groups, each group having a leader, and that a friendly competition to secure the greatest number of new members should be promoted amongst the groups; (4) That each Union should send to me at intervals a statement of the number of new members gained. This statement will be published in "White Ribbon." Please let me know whether your Union intends to take part in the campaign.

Yours in White Ribbon Bonds,

C. HENDERSON,

N.Z. Corres. Sec.
