

The White Ribbon

FOR GOD AND HOME AND HUMANITY

VOL. 26.—No. 311.

WELLINGTON, N.Z., MAY 18, 1921.

3s 6d Per Annum Post Free.
Single Copy, 3d.

MR. JUSTICE ADAMS.

The W.C.T.U. Convention sent a very hearty message of congratulation to Mr A. S. Adams upon his appointment to the Bench of Supreme Court Judges. Mr Adams has been the trusted leader of the Temperance Party for over a quarter of a century. He is a man of deep religious convictions, a deacon in the Baptist Church. When Convention met last time in Dunedin City, the minister of Hanover Street Baptist Church asked for a delegate to supply his pulpit on the Sunday morning. Mrs Cole, then Dominion President, requested the present Editor of this journal to supply this pulpit. The Editor, then an almost untried speaker, went in fear and trembling, assured by our