

WHAT THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS HAS DONE.

DEEDS, NOT WORDS.

Since it was established, January 10th, 1920, shows a record of international work for the benefit of humanity which is unparalleled in the history of the world. Amongst the most important are:—

1. The repatriation of nearly 400,000 Prisoners of War.
2. Sent out a Medical Mission to Central Europe to check the Epidemic of Typhus.
3. Established a Commission to administer the Free City of Dantzic, under the Peace Treaty.
4. Established a International Commission to administer the "Saar Valley."
5. It has held an International Financial Conference of 35 Nations at Brussels.
6. It has appointed a Commission and drawn up a Draft Treaty for the Limitation of Armaments.
7. It has established International Legislation for suppression of White Slave Traffic and the Protection of Women and Children.
8. It has established Legislation for the Control of Opium and Noxious Drugs.
9. It has established a Labour Bureau, composed of Capital, Labour, and Governments.
10. It has Established a Health Organisation.

11. It has established a compulsory Registration of all Treaties at Geneva; 200 have already been Registered.
12. It has established an International Court of Justice at the Hague.
13. It has prevented War by settling disputes between Sweden and Finland.
14. It has stayed Hostilities between Poland and Lithuania.
15. Also between Serbia and Albania.
16. It has settled a possible dispute between England and France in Upper Silesia.

In life, as in a football game, the principle to follow is: Hit the line hard; don't foul, and don't shirk, but hit the line hard.—Theodore Roosevelt.

The surest way to excel in conversation is to listen much, speak little, and say nothing that you may be sorry for.—La Rochefoucauld.

"Alcohol belongs in the same group of narcotics as ether, chloroform, and chloral."—Dr. Arthur D. Bevan.

"Abstinence from alcohol kills no joys of any account—its use impairs the chances of continuous working power."—Journal of American Education Association.

"The Eighteenth Amendment was the greatest legislative act of the century for child welfare."—Grace Abbott.

"Alcohol puts the man to sleep and awakens the beast."—Dr. Saint Jaques, Uruguay.

PRAYERS OF THE KNIGHTS OF PEACE.

O Lord, make me an instrument of Thy peace.
Where hate is, may I bring love;
Where offence has been given or taken, may I bring pardon;
Where there is discord, may I bring fellowship;
Where there is error, may I bring truth;
Where there is doubt, may I bring faith;
Where there is despair, may I bring hope;
Where there is darkness, may I bring light;
Where there is sadness, may I bring joy;
Master, let me seek rather to console than to be consoled;
To understand than to be understood;
To love rather than to be loved;
For it is in giving that I receive;
In forgetting myself that I find myself;
In pardoning that I receive pardon;
In dying that I am born again to the life eternal.
