OUR RESPONSIBILITIES Address Given by Mrs. J. Long,

Address Given by Mrs. J. Long, Auckland President, az District Convention

(Slightly abridged)

As we take a look at the world today we feel eager to remould it according to a new pattern upon a new foundation. But, can we build upon any other foundation than that which has been laid, even Jesus Christ, our Lord? Not if we expect lasting peace and love between men and nations.

Let us never forget the fact that God still sits upon the throne. We can still hear that still, small voice saying to us: "O fear not, nor be dismayed; for I am thy God, and will give thee aid."

We have that great power to strengthen us in the hour of need. We have seen many times that—

"God stands within the shadows Keeping watch above His own."

MRS. J. W. LONG, Auckland District President, Matron Maori Girls' Hostel, Parnell.

Britain; the retreat from Dunkirk, and in the Battle of North Africa.

For the past six years, we have passed through experiences such as the world has never known. Our hearts have been saddened with reports of things which have taken place in many parts. To all who have suffered the loss of loved ones, we extend our deepest sympathy; and pray the God of all comfort to be with them.

In our small part of the Empire we have been spared many sorrows, great anxiety, and much suffering. We raise our song of praise and thanksgiving as we recall the mercies and blessings so graciously bestowed upon us.

Victory has been gained over our outside enemies, but what about our inside enemy, Alcohol, the greatest enemy of mankind?

For the cast sixty years, Christian women have never ceased in the fight to prohibit and abolish that which poisons and robs people of their health and wealth; and today we remember those of our comrades who began this work in New Zealand long ago.

Let us t ke courage and determine to go forward from the example set us by our pioneer sisters. Their faith in God, their zeal and earnest endeavour laid the foundation of our great organisation in New Zealand, and today the influence of the Women's Christian Temperance Union is felt throughout the Dominion, and in many other countries in the world.

it is to Christian women and Church members we appeal. Ours is essentially a women's organisation and we need the support of all. Recently when we desired to offer proise and prayer in thankfulness to God, every fibre in our bodies must have been strained by the scenes witnessed and read about in our newspapers; drink being the cause of our Youth's downfall.

Our Responsibility to Youth

Shall we sacrifice our young people to be overthrown by this great curse, alcohol? Have we mothers borne and brought up our sons to become slaves of drink, vice and disease? Surely the need for our work was never more urgent if the coming generation is to be saved from the collapse which is inevitable.

Alcohol is not a necessity. It leads to inefficiency; it robs men and women, young and old, of their power of self-control.

We learn the New Zealand drink bill has reached the enormous total of nearly thirteen million pounds. Surely this is alarming when we realise the thousands of citizens and servicemen who are without decent accommodation and homes.

To what good use those millions could be put in supplying materials for homes. How many of our returned men could be given homes, a new start in life in the peace and happiness of such homes? Are the profits from this death-dealing industry of more value than human life?

Our Children

What about our children, the coming citizens of our fair country? How many of the newly born children of New Zealand have the taint of alcohol its their blood-stream? The numbers are growing because so many parents are imbibing freely. Alcohol is a racial poison, passed on by either parent to their offspring. We ask, how long will this state of affairs be tolerated? have kept too quiet in face of these facts. It is the privilege and duty of all Christian men and women to protest against this outrage on social and moral conditions brought about by the use of beverage alcohol.

Temperance societies, with the W.C.T.J., have sent many telegrams and resolutions of protest to those in authority, but no offer or any attempt to curtail this terrible position has been Solomon in his wisdom tells us that, "Righteousness exalteth a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people.

Let us do all we can in the name and strength of our Master, to cast out the cause of all the evils that are destroying our nation. Let us not be weary in well-doing, for in due season we shall reap if we faint not.

The Home

We must put forward the work among our young people, and seek to remove the stumbling blocks from their pathway. We must teach them not to touch, taste or handle intoxicating liquors. The greatest menace before children today is the entrance of in-We toxicating liquors into the homes. do not estimate the effect bottled beer has on home life. Young people, watching parents indulging, will have no influence to keep them from the same habits. New Zealand will reap what has been sown, and will not have the clear-sighted, clean-thinking citizens needed in every nation. The home will never be the place we love best when alcohol is carried there and people lose their sense of self-respect.

The home is the place where the foundations of the national life are built up. Can a nation be buil, on bottled beer? Can a new order of any value for the generations to come be established without giving God the pre-eminent place in the home, without honouring father and mother, without remembering the Sabbath Day to keep it holy? We must get back to the standards set by God for all men to follow. The hour has come for a nation - wide movement towards righteous living. Our hearts are deeply stirred by our country's need.

We have read with much interest the report of evidence given during the sittings of the Licensing Commission throughout New Zealand. Many people have learned of the waste carried on, of sugar, barley, malt, etc. and the despicable habits of hotel licensees.

The Native Race

The position amongst our Maoris is causing grave concern to many interested in their welfare. Alcohol was given them by our own pakeha people, and since the introduction of wet canteens during these past years of war, thousands of the flower of Maori manhood have become addicted to alcoholic liquors. It is generally understood that alcohol is more harinful to the Maori than the white man. The great scourge of tuberculosis has taken hundreds of Maori people, young and old. "We may conclude, and that confidently," said Dr. Dickenson, "that al-cohol promotes tubercle, not because it begets tubercle, but because it impairs the tissues, and makes them ready to yield to the attack of the parasite."

Thus we see the need to protect our Maori people from the harmful results of alcohol.

Let us determine to keep on in the great fight for the freeing of our land from that which destroys life and nations. Let us hold fast, work, pray, and trust in the Power, Presence, and Guidance of our Heavenly Father Who goeth before us continually.

_ *_ *_ *_ A MESSAGE OF LOVE AND SYMPATHY

All readers will be deeply sympathetic with our beloved President, Mrs. Hiett, in the loss of her sister, Miss B. Mackenzie, which occurred at the end of December. Though Miss Mackenzie's health had occasioned great anxiety for some considerable time, the end came unexpectedly and our loving thoughts and prayers are with Mrs. Hiett and Miss Mackenzie in this time of sorrow for one so very dear to them. While feelings of thanksgiving for a soul set free from the distress of human weakness come to their help, the sense of loss is very keen, and we pray that Heavenly comfort may sustain them, and the know-ledge that "Miss Bene" dwells in that

"Land of pure delight, Where saints immortal reign,"

"Infinite day excludes the night, And pleasures banish pain.

"NEW ZEALAND"

The Government has had prepared for the Royal Commission on Licensing reports from various departments, Licensing Committees and Magistrates. The most startling of these reports is the one on the Chatham Islands. These islands are a proclaimed area, having 350 Maoris out of a total population of 500. Striking an average, the consensus of opinion is that fully one-half of the income from all available sources is spent on liquor. The European section on the whole, and with few exceptions, could almost be reckoned as total abstainers. The Maori section, however, does sufficient drinking to characterise the whole popula-tion as a community of heavy drinkers, from the quantity of liquor consumed. It is impossible to give any accurate figure of the amount of money spent on liquor by the natives. The report states that "the moral, as well as the criminal law is violated to a degree far in excess of what might be expected, sexual cases especially being out of proportion to the population existing elsewhere. This is fostered and favoured by lack of moral teaching, and drinking of liquor, especially in the houses of native residents, where 'drinking parties' are held, and drink-ing by both sexes and young people is indulged in." There are two licensed hotels, owned by the same person. Both of the houses run a storekeeping business, which is against the law. This facilitates the supply of bottles of liquor for taking away, and this increases drinking, as they can easily be wrapped up and delivered from the grocery department. It is stated that native women get bottles of liquor in this way. The report suggests that all off sales be prohibited (to include Europeans), and there is the alternative of the Government taking over control, either direct or as a trust, under Government supervision, by a Committee nominated by the Government. It is hoped that the Royal Commission will give serious consideration to all these questions.

THE NEW YEAR

Ring out, wild bells, to the wild sky; The flying cloud, the frosty light: The year is dying in the night; Ring out, wild bells, and let him die.

Ring out old shapes of foul disease, Ring out the narrowing lust of gold; Ring out the thousand wars of old, Ring in the thousand years of peace.

Ring in the valiant man and free, The larger heart, the kindlier hand; Ring out the darkness of the land, Ring in the Christ that is to be.

TEMPERANCE FILM, "IT'S THE BRAIN THAT COUNTS"

LETTER FROM DR. BEEBY, DIRECTOR OF EDUCATION

> Education Department, Wellington.

Dear Mrs. Mitchell,

Thank you for your letter of 25th September, and for sending to the Education Department the film, "It's the Brain that Counts." Officers of the Department who have seen this film think it will be very suitable for post-primary schools. It has accordingly been placed in the National Film Library for care and distribution.

It is, of course, available to any organisation which has, or can borrow a suitable sound projector. You might, perhaps, like to make this generally known.

Since the film is likely to be in some demand, it is advisable for bookings to be made well in advance. Bookings should be addressed to the-

National Film Library, Education Department, Wellington.

> Yours faithfully, C. E. BEEBY, Director of Education.

NIUE ISLAND

It will be recalled that in our December number reference was made on the last page to a letter received from Mrs. Head, of Niue Island, in which she acknowledged the receipt of a parcel of clothing from a South Island Union. Apropos of this the following letter is published:-

4/1/46.

Dear Mrs. Christian,

I noticed a report from Niue Island. We saw how hard up some of the people over there were, so our W.C T.U. decided to send some suitable clothing, but found it could only be posted. So I sent the first parcel by post, from the Southland District Executive, and told Mrs. Head to let us know if it arrived in good order as many of the branches wanted to send more. I am pleased to hear about it as we feared it had been lost.

It costs 4/- for 14lb. posted. The Post Office people said it is better to make up the parcels to 7lb. and tie them together. We sent dresses, etc., suitable for a hot climate. I am sure others will send them parcels now.

Yours in W.R. Bonds,

(Mrs.) A. F. WALKER, Southland District President.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

My Dear White Ribboners,

A Happy New Year to all. What tremendous things happened in 1945. The greatest was the cessation of hostilities, after the tension, the struggles, the heart-breaks, the heroisms of war.

1946 awaits the unfolding of God's purposes, but with that unfolding must be the fervent desire of His children to conform to His plans and purposes. To do the will of God will bring to us all a glad New Year. Love for mankind, the sinner as well as the saint, will bring us all into accord with the Father's will. Love worketh no ill, but rather blessing, and if we are persecuted for righteousness sake, let us gladly suffer that we may work for the good of al.. To remove the stum-bling blocks is a God-given task. Many will scoff and hold us up to derision, but love will overcome all obstacles.

Poll year, with the drink traffic as blatant as ever! Put on your armour, my comrades, and fear not the difficulties of the fight against this iniquitous trade. Let love for the lost fill your hearts with the compassion which Jesus had when He said: "How oft would I have gathered you as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings." This love will teach us to fear no loe, but to go steadily on to win votes for righteousness.

May God guide us all in this new year, to make 1946 a year to be remembered for the sacrificial love poured out in service.

> Yours in Christian love, JESSIE HIETT.

A COUNTY COUNCILLOR SPEAKS

At a November meeting of the Whakatane County Council it was reported that car parties were in the habit of throwing their empty bottles on the rocks below at Ohope, regardless of the danger to children and picnickers, the same practice being followed at The Heads. Speaking of this, Councillor McCready expressed the opinion that it would be a good thing when glass containers were forbidden, adding that it would not make any difference to the beer-drinkers, most of whom would be prepared to drink it from a gum-boot if needs be.

SPECIAL NOTICE FOR UNIONS

Please arrange for this to be read at your Next Meeting

1. DATE OF ISSUE OF "W.R."

In future the paper will be published on the first of the month.

2. REPORTS

All reports, articles and correspondence MUST be in the hands of the Editor by the fifteenth of the month. The earlier they are sent, the easier it is for them to be dealt with.

3. WHAT TO REPORT

No routine business, afternoon tea details, names of prize-winners, of matters of interest only to the Union concerned, should be included. Anything which may be helpful as to plans of work, addresses, or work being done in any department will be gladly welcomed. Space has become very valuable and must be carefully used.

4. REPORTS OF ANNUAL MEETINGS

It has not been possible to publish the names of superintendents. Only names of Union Officers could be included.

In some cases the reporter has sent a condensed copy of the Annual Report. While these have been very interesting, they could not be included. Probably these details have appeared already in the monthly reports. A "Special" report where the work is outstanding, would appear on the page kept for these, if it were sent in.

5. UNION ADVERTISEMENTS

These are handled entirely by Mrs. Grigg, our efficient business Manager. It is not enough to have sent the list of names to the Editor. They should be sent, with the payment necessary, to Mrs. Grigg, 1 Mallam Street, Karori, Wellington. The Editor handles no money. Much time and many stamps have been wasted during the past year because this has not been noted by officers of Unions. Make sure that your Union is not among those who ignore this announcement.

6. REMEMBER

All reports should be headed with the Name of the Union and the Date of the Meeting.

Now, dear reader, will you please read all this again? There is nothing against your cutting it out, and keeping it for reference if your memory is not quite reliable.

RETIRING AGE FOR PRESIDENTS

To the Editor, Dear Madam,

I think some more Branches of the W.C.T.U. would have closed down but for the old "die-hards" during the war years. There are so many women's organisations nowadays, in the Church and elsewhere. Capable women are doing special Church work, young women usually have young families and have no extra help. With all the various war efforts in addition to the already existing organisations, in smaller towns at any rate, there are not enough executive women to go round.

Even some who have been members of the "Y"s find it impossible to undertake further duties. As Mrs. Mercer implies, there may be some women over fifty-five who hold on to the position for prestige or some other personal reason, but there are many others who would gladly be relieved of responsibility. Some have even retired, and more than once, only to be forced back into harness to try to rebuild or just to keep going through difficult years, and help the general cause.

I may add: "We shall rest, and faith, we shall need it."

Yours sincerely, "ONCE UNDER FIFTY-FIVE."

In support of her belief regarding the age at which women should retire from presidential duties, Mrs. Mercer

"Consider the matter practically. A generation is accounted twenty-five years. By the time a woman is fifty, she should be ready to retire and leave her daughters—her own or 'daughters of affection' whom she has trained, to carry on as leaders. To have her daughter sharing her interests, efficient in carrying on, is the best success a mother can hope for.

"At fifty, a physical point is reached. Even for those with perfect health and splendid vigour, after fifty comes the downward slope. Things are not so easy to do, one gradually becomes more easily tired. More important still, where leadership is concerned one begins to look backward instead of forward. Believe me, when one begins to realise a fund of reminiscences, and to dwell on the past instead of looking to the future, it is time to hand over the reins. Take, perhaps, a few years in doing it, but by fifty-five it should be done."

Yours, etc., K. MERCER.

W.C.T.U. WORLD CONVENTION AT TORONTO AGAIN POSTPONED

The post-war situation makes necessary another postponement of the World's Convention. The Canadian White Ribboners have graciously extended their invitation for 1947 and the time decided upon is June of that year. Exact dates will be announced later.

It will be ten years since we have met in convention and the years have been fraught with sacrifice, pain and suffering. It is wonderful the way in which White Ribboners have carried on. Our work is still needed. It is especially important that the national organisations in our federated countries be represented by one or more of their chosen officers and by regularly appointed delegates. Visitors will be welcome.

The place of meeting will be Toronto, Canada; the Royal York Hotel will be headquarters. It will be an important convention as several new World's Officers must be elected and there will be many problems to be solved and many plans made for the rehabilitation of our work.

Our organisation has been a pioneer in promoting world friendship. Let our convention be the first women's convention to cement the friendships of the present. Let us all pray for God's guidance and His blessing on our meeting.

Secretary. World's W.C.T.U.

MISS MARY L. BOLLERT, OF VANCOUVER, B.C.

(Late President of the Pan-Pacific Women's Association)

News has recently been received in New Zealand of the death in Vancouver of Miss Mary L. Bollert, President of the Pan-Pacific Women's Association, and the first dean of women of the University of British Columbia.

After a distinguished scholastic career at Toronto University, from which she graduated with honours in English and modern languages, Miss Bollert held numerous important positions in colleges and universities, both in Canada and the United States. For some years she was a lecturer at the Teachers' College, Columbia University, and included in her work comprehensive public courses under the New York Board of Education. Later she became professor of English and dean of women at Regina, Sask., and then held similar positions in the University of British Columbia.

Her interest in social work and in women's organisations was international and comprehensive, her sound scholarship and her charming personality enabling her to make an outstanding contribution in women's affairs. Dean Bollert travelled widely in this phase of her work. She was a Canadian delegate of the International Federation of University Women at conference in Paris (1924), Geneva (1929), and Edinburgh (1932), and was a guest speaker at the International Congress of Women in Chicago (1933). In 1934 she was selected as a member of a party of twelve deans of women of North America to visit the Y.W.C.A. of Japan, and her special interest in Pacific affairs was continued in her valuable work at conference of the Pan-Pacific Women's Association held at intervals at Honolulu and lastly at Vancouver in 1937.

As president of this association, Dean Bollert intended to visit New Zealand in January, 1940, when the triennial conference was planned to be held in Wellington. However, wartime conditions prevented the assembly of an international conference and New Zealand women now regret the passing of a gracious leader whose work for education and international co-operation has been so remarkable. (Supplied by Miss Elsie Andrews, Chairman Pan-Pacific Committee, N.Z.)

The following paragraph has been supplied by Mrs. Gainsford, President of the Opawa Union. She says: "Mr. Jones is one of our honoured missionaries. He is at present in New Zealand, and made the enclosed statement in an address at our recent Annual Assembly at Dunedin."

I was for three and a quarter years connected with the military in India during the recent war. For two and a half years I was in charge of a Unit of over 1,100 men. No liquor was allowed in any of the camps of the Unit. This applied also to the officers' mess. I doubt if there was in Assam a happier, healthier or more hardworking Unit.

My experience, covering months in many camps throughout India, leads to the conviction that drink is the greatest single removeable cause of inefficiency in the Army in India.

An "At Home" in aid of funds for the Maori Hostel was held on December 12th, 1945, at the residence of Mrs. A. L. Claridge, Superintendent of the Maori Department. The weather being fine, a happy time was spent out of doors, the visitors strolling round the garden and viewing the flowers. They were greeted on arrival by the joint hostesses, Mrs. Claridge and Miss R. Edwards.

The programme commenced with a brief speech of welcome by the vice-president, Miss Jamieson, who explained that the Hostel had been taken over by the W.C.T.U. during the war years in order to assist in providing homes for the Maori girls who were flocking to the city. It was thought that a Christian home under the influence of a kindly matron would help, if only in a small way, in providing a happy home atmosphere, which would prevent girls from getting into undesirable accommodation places.

Miss R. Edwards then gave pleasure with two recitations, after which the president, Mrs. D. H. Coles, spoke a few words, saying she had been pleased to be associated with members and hoped she would soon know them all. A treasure-hunt in the garden then took place, after which afternoon tea was partaken of under the trees.

"The financial result of the afternoon was over £4, which included admissions, donations, and "Bring and Buy" takings. This was made up to £5/5/-. A hearty vote of thanks to the hostesses for the afternoon, which had involved much work, was carried by acclamation.

"WITH THE -MAORI ORGANISER IN MAORILAND"

Throughout the pas in the Rotorua district which I had the pleasure of visiting, the topic of interest was the W.C.T.U. Maori Girls' Hostel in Parnell. Sitting among the Maori women of the Health Leagues, I talked to them, showed a picture of the Hostel, answered questions, and invited them to come and see for themselves. The mothers of girls are deeply grateful to those who have made the various hostels possible for their girls, and for the assurance that when they themselves come to the city there will be a comfortable home and a warm welcome for them among their own folk.

Sitting in the sunshine in the outer court of a Maori meeting-house at one of the League meetings, I was telling the story of the Hostel Movement, when an old lady joined us, whose knowledge of English was not enough for her to follow without an interpreter, so the League Secretary acted in this capacity. Now and then, the old lady stopped, touched my knee and exclaimed "Kapai! Kapai!" (Good). She was tremendously excited by what she heard. It was easy to open out before these women a vision of the great world-wide work for God, Home and Humanity for which the W.C.T.U. stands, and is doing. The chief object of the Health League is to protect the child and the home, and in every way to promote the well-being of the Maori race. So, we are at one in our Aims and Objects.

We have long since recognised and waged war on the greatest known enemy of the Child, the Home and the Race, and these women are awakened now, too. But they are handicapped. To a great extent, they are voiceless. They have no vote on this great question, and their little ones, now very numerous, are quickly growing up to be an easy prey of the accursed Liquor Traffic. We must help them: by Prayer. Do make special prayer for our Maori sisters and the children. By Education. Petition the Education Department to enforce the teaching of Scientific Temperance in all Native Schools. By Christian friendship. Visit neighbouring pas; hold home meetings, distribute literature; speak kindly to all Maori people.

The Fish Car

During the progress of a meeting a car bumped up the hill on to the marae. A man descended, and asked if anyone could give him change for a half note. Little did he think he was interrupting a Temperance meeting! A woman produced a box and gave him change. "Do you want any fish? I have some in the car." The woman looked at me and glanced longingly at the car. I smiled, and said I would wait, and the meeting quietly melted away. "Fish" was irresistible in that far-away pa. The fish were "parked" on the grass in the shade of the trees, was resumed. The pa is "timeless," and one enjoyed the feeling that no seats were re-filled, and the meeting one was in a hurry; no trains to catch; no hungry husbands awaiting dinner that was late because of the W.C.T.U.-ing of their wives.

Two mothers had walked one and a half miles in rain, one carrying a four-months-old baby in a blanket, the other had met her husband on the road, and had transferred the two-months-old baby to him to take home and care for. Well, it was League day, the women's day out.

Literature was distributed and aroused much interest, some pieces being in Maori. Several copies of "The White Ribbon," "Y.P. Supplement," and the "Challenge" were left in each pa, and eagerly received.

The Children

Children's gatherings were arranged for me to address and quite large numbers were contacted. What lovely, healthy, well-dressed children the majority were. They give such wonderful promise of a virile, clever race of excellent citizens in the next decade, rising in their young manhood and womanhood to fill the gap left by the many young heroes of the Maori Battalion.

One experiences a sense of heartache while talking to them. Will many of them escape the clutch of the Brewer and the Man-trap of the Hotel Bar? They listened so eagerly to talks on "Physical Fitness," "Good Citizenship." "The King of the Castle," etc., and the very definite warnings against alcohol. The power of God in their hearts, and the Wisdom which is from above encircling them, is our heart's desire for the children of the Maori race.

Mission Workers

Many Mission workers in settlements which I could not visit owing to lack of transport or petrol were contacted by letter, and supplies of literature sent. All workers tell the same story. The Liquor Traffic is one of the greatest evils among the Maoris, and the greatest hindrance to effective Christian work.

One thousand six hundred leaflets from our own literature department, supplies of "Y.P." Supplements, 1,500 leaflets, half in Maori, and a supply of very fine posters from the Auckland Council of Temperance Education have been sent out to a worker in the Bay of Plenty for widespread distribution. I have distributed about 700 pieces of Temperance literature and over fifty copies of the "Challenge."

Will every Union please consider ways in which they can help the Maori work?

THE EDITOR SOLILOQUISES

An unexpected boon has come today. It is that a whole sheet more of space is available for the "White Ribbon" because the "Y.P. Supplement" is to be published separately in future, and not as a part of the "W.R." This is indeed riches. As however, the news has come too closely to the time of going to press for full use to be made of it for this issue; so we are using some of the space to enlarge upon one or two matters of interest to us

Change of Date of Issue

A few members and reporters have mentioned that their monthly reports will not appear in the issue following next upon their meetings. It may be some small consolation for them to remember that always there have been some in this difficulty, and that it is only a small thing really. For several reasons, the first of the month is more convenient. Our members are usually very sweetly reasonable, and will surely co-operate by sending their reports by the fifteenth each month, and much earlier than that if they can.

Suggestions for Features

Many valuable suggestions as to "Housewives' Columns," Crossword Puzzles, Overseas News, and other special features have been received. It has been very interesting and helpful to consider them. Up to the pre-sent, too much copy has been sent each time, and "overset" material has been returned. It will be a pleasure to use some of this at last. Till the March issue is prepared some intensive thinking will be necessary as to using our increased space to the fullest advantage.

Plans of Action

With a great fight ahead of us for our liberation as a Dominion from the bonds, which are growing stronger, it would seem that, as in physical warfare, certain things must be most carefully and wisely planned out, so that the maximum of efficiency in such matters as Co-operation, Timing, Equipment, and absolute readiness for Action, shall be manifested. Everyone knows that mere enthusiasm, however keen and eager, is not enough. It will be the aim of the "W.R." to provide, as the result of long and earnest consideration by Dominion Officers, a definite scheme of work, having in view as a focal point the poll. Beginning next month, some line of activity will be indicated in each issue, leading steadily to intensive effort. Mrs. Kasper, whose department is concerned with such work as this, is preparing useful suggestions. The weakness of leaving everything till the last few days or months will thus be avoided. As a beginning for this month

Attendance of Delegates at Convention is indicated as a vitally important strengthening of our hands for the task ahead. There is still time for funds to be raised for the payment of expenses, and this is the actual duty of every Union. Will there be a real representation of our membership this time, or will 148 Unions be represented by fewer than sixty delegates? Will all Unions understand that they are throwing away their vote and voice which are their only real means of expressing their wishes and ideas, if they have no delegate to exercise them? How marvellous it would be to see all Unions represented. Voting for Dominion Officers would be a very exciting thing. Important remits would be fully understood and receive more careful attention. Well, who knows? There is yet hope for the Christchurch Convention.

A Last Question

After all this, a nasty, sneaking sort of little voice whispers in our ear: "Do you really imagine that people are going to take any sort of notice of all this? How many do you suppose will even read it? And, judging by past experience, have you any grounds for hoping that reporters, and treasurers, and secretaries, will remember, even if they read it?" Shoo! Run away! Of course they will. They are all intelligent, sensible women, and will make sure-at least we hope they will.
