

LITTLE GRAINS

OF ROT...
MAKE A STUPID
RUMOUR...
OUT OF WHAT
WHAT IS NOT..

As is customary with publications your Editor sent copies of our first edition to contemporaries in NZ..here's an encouraging reply we received from one.. "Thank you for sending me a copy of the Niauuli News..I will lose
no time reading it."

REINFORCEMENT TO HIS COBBER.."They tell me that the R.Q. bloke here is the fussiest Quartermater you've ever seen."
"Fussiest! Blimey, you don't know th' half of it. A digger took a fit in th' store yesterday, and fair dinkum this Orme chap made him sign for it..."

WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THE ARMY AND A CIRCUS...we believe that the Army has more tents.....

Publishers of publications invariably use the replies to advertisers and to their own feature competitions as some indication of their papers popularity and on some occasions are not slow in 'playing up' the results to gain further circulation and advertising....
Using this as a theme we want to tell you that this news-sheet STINKS...because last week we gave you a simple sweepstake competition and the replies at the time of going to press amount to exactly NIL....We can't understand this, maybe it was because the issue was that good (did some one cough) that you sent your copy home and forgot about doing the competition or maybe you don't think that that was what the CO really did say...Anyway here's the right solution.."ARE YOU ON MY SIDE OR THE BOOKIES.".....

Sigmn Dalziel: What's the difference between a school and M Section's lighting system?

Sigmn Dempsey: I give up.

Sigmn Dalziel: Well; one breaks up and the other breaks down.

PROGRESS REPORT: LAD Serjeants tent week ending 27 May....NIL..

RETORT..The one triumphant and unanswerable epigram of mankind, the grandest and most resolute utterance in the face of implacable fate, is the SNORE.

DO YOU KNOW....that any spot on the globe is no more than sixty hours flying time from the nearest 'drome..

RUGBY..As you all know Sigs are entering a team in the competition sponsored by the G.O.C. This is a knock-out competition for Field Regiments, Battalions and Service teams...The standard required will therefore be pretty high and we can only attain this by solid training.....

Our chaps are now doing their bit and believe me it's going to be hard work, they will want all the help and support we can give them...If you will come and see them you will see a steady improvement in their play. You can help them to succeed by your encouragement..Nothing succeeds like success
