Wellington, Friday, September 25, 1942.

Registered as a Newspaper for Transmission by Post at the G.P.O., Wellington.

A DANGEROUS MASQUERADE!

Spying on spies . . . sabotaging saboteurs . . . cheating cheaters! Such was the perilous mission of one courageous man . . . self-imposed to right the wrongs of his own blood brother! Unsung—unheralded—unrewarded! Yet he dared an unspeakable fate to follow a great ideal to its glorious conclusion!

FUN WITH MAGIC!

THE SLAVE BANGLE

SLAVE BANGLE.

A cord is tied around each wrist, as in the illustration. A bangle is then given for examination, and performer announces that he will pass the ring on the cord. He turns his back for a moment, and accomplishes the feat. The knots may be sealed.

PRICE 3/6.

THE MONTE CRISTO DECK, No. 1.

MAGIC FORCING PACK OF CARDS.

No. 1.—This is a modern forcing deck. You can show all the cards to be different, yet you can force a card in the most subtle manner.

Price, Complete, 4/6.

THE MONTE CRISTO DECK, No. 2.

No. 2.—Enables any amateur to perform many tricks, including the following:—Restore the torn card. Burn a card, and afterwards restore it whole and perfect. Cut pack and name top card before the cut is made. Burn card and then find it in the pocket of the person who burned it. Discover a card by its weight or smell. Destroy a card and afterwards find it in a hat, in a locked box, under a chair cushion in a gentleman's pocket. Any one of the tricks can be performed by an amateur in the drawing-room, without fear of detection and will enable him to amuse the company with only the aid of the pack of cards, no confederate being required with any of the tricks. Complete, with Cards, Directions and Secret.

Price, Complete, 4/6.
