FINE SPECTACLE

Trooping The Colour

BIG CROWD GATHERS

God of the granite and the rose! Soul of the sparrow and the bee! The mighty tide of being flows, Through countless channels, Lord, from thee.

It leaps to life in grass and flowers, Through every grade of being runs; Till, from creation's radiant towers, Its glory flames in stars and suns.

Know that, like birds, and streams, and flowers,

The life that moves you is divine; Nor time, nor space, nor human powers,

Your god-like spirit can confine.

Thus round and round the circle runs, A mighty sea without a shore; While men and angels, stars and suns, Unite to praise thee evermore.

-L. Doten.

Interesting Items.

With all the contingents on the ground, the Stars and Stripes flag was borne out before the stand and the Marine Band played the "Star Spangled Banner." A musical march by the interhouse girls, accompanied by the same band, followed.

In the meantime the R.N.Z.A.F. Band and the Camp Band massed, and at the conclusion of the marching disat the conclusion of the marching display, did a ceremonial march. It was explained to the audience by Flight Lieutenant Gladstone Hill, the commander of the R.N.Z.A.F. Band, who acted as announcer and master of ceremonies, that the reason why the Marine Corps Band did not play with the other true leads with a difference in the control of the conclusion of the marching display. The WEEK.

Flowers preach to us if we will hear.

—Christino Rosetti, mer (captain), Union Jack; Miss Kitty Stowell, Australia; Miss Merie Greennacted as announcer and master of ceremonies, that the reason why the Marine Corps Band did not play with the other two bands was a difference in pitch in their instruments. The two New Zealand bands played to the higher pitch of 540 C, while the United States band was tuned to a 522 C. A few bars of "Colonel Bogey" played by the three bands together soon convinced that their massing was not very tuneful.

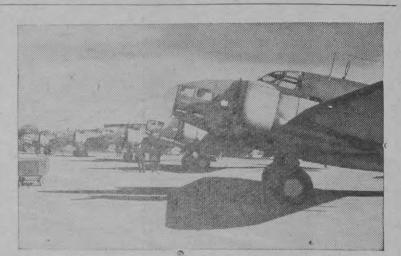

While the R.N.Z.A.F. Band, with the W.A.A.F.'s colour parties, the A.T.C. armed escort, the other A.T.C. units and the Red Cross Women's Transport unit were moving into position for the chief item of the afternoon's programme.

Trooping the Colour.

The ceremonial Trooping the Colour was excellently and punctifiously carried out. It was organized by Mr. A. D. Lynch, of Naper. The parade, in three sides of a square, advanced toward the stand from the far side of the ground in perfect formation. At either side were the
A.T.C. units, with the armed escorts at the rear of each line. The R.N.Z.A.F.
Band formed the centre of the back line,
with the Red Cross Transport girls each side of it, Within the square, slightly in advance of the back line, were the four colour parties of W.A.A.F's, bearing, from left to right, the Australian, United States, British (Union Jack), and New Zealand flags. The parade came to the halt before the centre of the stand.
From beneath the stand emerged four girls in bright uniforms after the type of the Guards, and wearing bushies. They advanced to positions facing the spaced colour parties. Then, in order, the United States, Australian, New Zealand and British colours were reassferred to them, with precise ceremony, by the W.A.A.F. bearers. The four girls, also specially visiting Welling-

When I gaze into the blue deaths Everyman's Hut When I gaze into the blue deaths of the summer sky, or watch from the edge of the cliffs the cloud-shadows chasing one another over the fertile plain, or, far below the great sweep of purple heather, see the lake asleep beneath the sun, I see God, as it were, clad in His vesture of material loveli-

God comes to us through every manifestation of life and power and beauty of which we can dream. . . . He is closer to us than the air we breathe, closer to us than the thoughts we think; for He is the element in which we live and move and have our being. . . . If you hold in your hand a rose and admire its fragrance, its tinting, its beauty, God looks out of it into your face.-Minot J. Savage.

KODAK SERVICE

The sight of the first pale flowers starring the copses; an anemone held up against the blue sky with the sun shining through it towards you; . . . who that has felt the joy of these things would exchange them, even if in return he were to gain the whole world with its chimney-pots, and bricks, and dust, and dreariness? And we know that the gain of a world never yet made up for the loss of a soul.—From The Solitary Summer.

EVERYMANS THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK.

"By your showing here," the mayor said to the spectators, "you must be congratulated in demonstrating that you congratulated in demonstrating that you will not let down the men overseas."

In paying a tribute to the Marine Corps band, he said that by the warmth of their reception of the band spectators had shown their appreciation of it, and also of all the other Americans they had got to know so well.

Flight Lieutenant Gladstone Hill added a tribute from New Zealand bandsmen. Wherever their paths might lead them in the time to come they would always be remembered here.

An item by the Marines Band, and the R.N.Z.A.F. Band's ceremonial "V" march brought the programme to an end.
