THE FINAL ISSUE AND OUR THANKS

We regret very much that the Ministry of Supply has deemed it necessary, owing to the shortage of paper and other reasons, that the publication of this paper be discontinued as from this issue. We desire to extend our thanks to all the advertisers who have so generously supported the paper during the past three years.

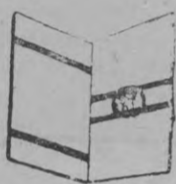

To all contributors, and in particular Everyman's Hut, for their weekly contribution, and J.P. of Ngauruahia, for the interesting and topical verse he has forwarded.

We feel sure that had greater interest been taken in this journal by the rank and file, we would still be carrying on.

THE MAGIC POCKET BOOK.

AN UNSAFE REPOSITORY, FOR THE COIN AND CARD DISAPPEAR.

VERY EASY, YET VERY MYSTERIOUS.

The performer borrows a coin or card that he asks someone to mark for identification. It is dropped into the pocket book and closed. Book is opened and card or coin has disappeared and made to reappear elsewhere.

Card Tricks that Entertain

THE MONTE CRISTO DECK, No. 1.

MAGIC FORCING PACK OF CARDS.

No. 1.—This is a modern forcing deck. You can show all the cards to be different, yet you can force a card in the most subtle manner.

Price, Complete, 4/6.

PENETRA — MATTER THROUGH MATTER

A Novel Card Trick. No Skill or Practice Needed. Very Mystifying.

Effect—A Card with cross cuts in the middle is shown and another ordinary card handed around for examination. This is placed behind the first card and a rubber band is passed around each end. The performer bends the front card forward to show that the other card is still there. Then he thrusts a pencil or a match right through the cards and draws out the other side, yet he immediately hands out the rear card, that proves to be intact and undamaged.

PRICE 2/6, with full directions and diagram.

THE MONTE CRISTO DECK, No. 2.

No. 2.—Enables any amateur to perform many tricks, including the following:—Restore the torn card. Burn a card, and afterwards restore it whole and perfect. Cut pack and name top card before the cut is made. Burn card and then find it in the pocket of the person who burned it. Discover a card by its weight or smell. Destroy a card and afterwards find it in a hat, in a locked box, under a chair cushion in a gentleman's pocket. Any one of the tricks can be performed by an amateur in the drawing-room, without fear of detection and will enable him to amuse the company with only the aid of the pack of cards, no confederate being required with any of the tricks. Complete, with Cards, Directions and Secret.

Price, Complete, 4/6.

READING THE CARDS.
