

See Christmas
Cue, 1945,
For Answers

1. In what country are the police fined for every broken law ?
2. Why does a cow always move her off-hind leg at the seventh chew of the cud ?
3. If the upas of the zwieback were moved to the anterior lobe, what would result. (For doctors, sisters, etc., only).
4. What famous general insisted on sitting back to front on his horse in a charge ?
5. If seven men did a piece of work in four days, what would be the parabola described by a Nazi paratrooper descending in a defective parachute, assuming, of course, that x remains constant ?
6. Which well-known golfer invariably used a hockey-stick ?
7. A famous prima donna was both deaf and dumb—who was she ?
8. Who invented the Xanthippe, and how is it played ?
9. What animal sleeps with its beard under the blankets ?
10. What river starts at the coast, ends in the hills—and flows backwards ?
11. What disease, if any, is prevalent among the genus, sloid ?
12. What cereal crop grows downward and has to be mined at harvest-time ?
13. In what part of the world are hens' teeth used as currency ?
14. What bird persistently builds its nest in blast furnaces ?
15. What great artist never did a picture in his life ?
16. Complete the quotation: « And they ne'er »

Give yourself 4 marks for each question.

(No. 3 question is purely voluntary and is not included in the score).

If your total is:—

None: There is faint hope for you yet.

4 - 16: You are definitely dumb—but perhaps a glimmer if proper care is taken of you.

20 - 40: Not a chance, permanently 14/- in the pound (N.Z.).

44 - 56: Stark, staring crazy.

All correct: A.P.R.

If you think the whole thing is just dumsilly, you're as sane as we are.