THE RAINS CAME 153

The much looked forward to game between 151 & FHQ was played last Jednesday. Unfortunately the weather didn't behave quite as it should have & although play was not stopped conditions were so had that it could not be regarded as a failr test. With scores about even at quarter past four everyone went home soaked through. it is hoped a return match can be arranged at Naia in the not too distant future.

SLIP CATCHES. Mr Chapman batting in has overcoat. Sgt.Armstrong attired in a very attractive white ensemble catching a 151 player's bat at mid off. Bdr.MacIndoe trying to convince himself he was bowling well after taking three wickets in one over. Gnr. Hopkins going out first ball & Bdr. Sanders innings of 54. Mr.King walking home when the motor bike wouldn't 300

Aunt Allices! Answers To Amorous Anxiotica

Dear Aunt Alice,

Dear Aunt Alice, I'M afraid you're going to be shocked at me a I've got three wive saway from home he worried con-wives a cf course two of them aren't really wives but they don't inow it and they serve the same purpess a one in N.Z., two in wiji (one when I was a gorilla in the Western area and the other when I was drunk in Suva) but now I've met the "grand passion" of my life and, oh, Aunt Alice; can she a er a I mean, does she a er a ophii coht' Well she's got every-thing a cf course they all have, or I think so anyway in my own ignorant way, but somehow there's just that little sometMing of difference that makes the world s pin. She's not much to look at, s pin. She's not much to look at, she's not exactly brown so much as creamy yollow with brown spots and creased sashes of black, but those sashes seem fashionedfortbashion. Tousank I am undone; what should I do? I'd be in the air all the time if my tent had blinds.s Yours in the toils of des ire, Passilonate Percy.

Wy poor pash Perce,

water,

You don't want advice, you want a stud groom. I think you'd better apply for Passionato Leave. Yours which a bucket of cold

"ITALIAN WAR COMMUNIQUE." "On the Torbruk front a large force of Italians attacked a New Zealand cyclist, causing him to dismount. After heavy and prolonged fighting they were able to puncture his tyres. The front wheel was destroyed, while the loss of the rear wheel must also be considered probable. The handlebars are in our hands but possession of the frame is still being bitterly contested" as O M O as O M O ou Oos O M Oce O

It was George's firs t visit to town. In fact it was the first time he had ever been away from the farm. Climbing out of the very ancient car in one of the main streets, our George became fascinated by the pavement. He scraped his large boots on the hard surface, and, turning to Pop said :--"Well, I don't blame them build-ing a town here. The ground is too darned hard to plough anyway" the Que Que Que Que Que Que Que Que Whe conductor told a passenger that the next stop was where he got off. The passenger said, "Which end of the car shall I get off?" The conductor replied, "Either one, both ends stop"
