PUNTERS PICK PAYABLE PLUMS AT EASTER RACES

(By our Racing Writer)

An overnight shower in no way affected the track which was in excellent order for the Tongariro Racing Club's Easter meeting. There was a real holiday spirit (the only spirit available) and punting patrons were present from Christchurch to Bluff.

Never before has local accommodation been so overtaxed, and rather than miss this year's Great Easter and Riverton Cup contest, many enthusiasts camped around the course for several days. In fact, some of the more ardent racegoers slept on the track and had to be politely removed by the caretakers each morning when they arrived to water the course and adjoining lawns.

The Totalisator handled £162 16s. 6d. enabling £15 10s. to be handed to charity. Only two tickets were taken out on the winning double and odds were at 160 to 1. One punter who took the double the 36 ways received £8 for his 36/-outlay.

Niente's breeding (by Boloney, out of Jane) told punters that there was something doing and he overcame every hurdle to get there at 6 to 1. Niente certainly proved there is nothing in a name. Musty (by Patriotic Issue, out of NAAFI) failed to go, while Snail's Pace (by Bay Boat, out of Convoy) looked a doubtful finisher at one stage but stuck gamely to her task.

The Dunedin Guineas might have been a better race had On The Nose, Hangover and Bolonachi not been suffering from soreness. This gave Sleepless Nights an easy win and he practically yawned his way home at odds of 9 to 2.

HANGOVER

who certainly looks as if he has had one

A hardened campaigner in At Last (by Old Dig, out of Hope) outstayed the field to win the Great Easter at good odds of 13 to 2. Wild Dream bolted before the start and was still uncontrollable when the barrier lifted. Fair Dinkum's performance was not true to form.

The popular Long Beer won the Cup, with iffy Pot Luck second.

Aussies' Threat to Rabaul

Australian forces in the South Pacific continue to make good progress.

A recent advance constitutes a real threat to the port of Rabaul which is still held by a large Japanese garrison.

The Aussies have split the Japanese forces in the north of Bougainville and have gained one third of the island since taking over from American troops.

NZ MINISTERS IN LONDON

The Prime Minister, Mr. P. Fraser, the High Commissioner Mr. W. J. Jordan, and the NZ Minister for Washington, will represent New Zealand at the British Empire Conference in London.

Mr. Sid. Holland is also in London at present. His is to be a three month's visit, and among the matters he will discuss is the possibility of reasonable immigration.

Mr. Holland is to visit NZ troops in Italy and the Middle East,

IMPORTANT PART PLAYED

The British Commonwealth Air Training Scheme in Canada, by which hundreds of NZ airmen were trained, came to an end on April 1.

Mr. Churchill and others have paid tribute to the important part it has played in the Empire's war effort.

Over 100,000 trainees have been sent out to all the fronts of the world.
