EDITORIAL

We thank you for your warm thanks on reading of our last issue. We thank you for your kindly interest; your keen appreciation; we thank you for everything. We are deeply indebted to all the promises of articles, poems and general tit-bits.. alas - alack - not yet forthcoming. And we live in hope, even though we die in despair, that one day will dawn when all men will live for the truth and justice this paper so ably propounds.

PERSONAL GLIMPSES

Spr. Anderson. T.

The unit is fast becoming hardened to the merry laugh of Terry. A fine man and a noble character. Our Terry. What manner of man is this.. Crisp golden hair and sparkling eye.. A figure pregnant with possibilities. Terry has always shown a leaning towards public life. At the present time he is a big figure in the corporation but his best is in front of him. A keen musical appreciation, he played on the linclum at two years of age, his real love is with the old masters His own composition "Jiddle I Do" he considers is among the worlds best.

His slogan..

Average Anderson avoirdupois against all accepted axioms automatically accruing annex.
