EDITORIAL

The time has arrived for an explanation. A doubt rapidly developing to a fear is present in our circle. The fear is that every man in Div. Engs. will in the near future be torn away from his comrades and sent back to New Zealand on a course. The scare has been fostered by the fact that officers and sergeants, without any 'by your leave' have been forced to go. When your Editor was discussing the war situation with the G.O.C. recently this feature was introduced. Your Editor was informed that all ranks must be prepared to forgo the luxury and social life of their camps. No aspect of the mens feelings could be taken into consideration and they would have to go whether they liked it or not. Now-we ask —is it justice? is it fair? Are the rank and file, men who know their jobs, to be treated as ordinary officers and sergeants and sent home in disgrace for further tuiten. Are we MICE or are we MEN???...

INSTRUCTIONS FOR MESS PARADES. . By the CHIEF SLUSHY LESSON 2. The movement forward will be by a séries of short steps lifting the feet cleanly off the ground to a height of 42" Any attempt at intimacy will be rigidly suppressed. When the third man in front has received his meal the man will place his meat plate in the right hand and the dessert plate in the left hand. While the second man in front is being served the plates will be raised to a mean height of 8s above serving counter level. Any remarks as to the legitimacy of the cook or retorts as to the coming of pregnancy by the sapper will be abolished. Likewise will caustic rejoinders as to the mans ability to go through the preparatory stages of a gallinaceous for roasting. It must at all times be remembered that at one time the cook was also a man. When the food is placed upon the plates a sweet smile to the cook goes a long way to brighten his day. A comment as to the food not being fit for pigs being entirely false it is .. End of LESSON 2 ...

Herald the birth of another morn

Doth rise and sneak out from his tent

As if to keep a certain date With Destiny.

Quietly moving o'er the ground Head well down nor looking

He passes as a wraith doth

He passes as a wraith doth pass

Down the path and o'er the grass

Then vanishes between the row Of Trucks

Then, tinkle tinkle, hear the sound
Of tool kit emptied on the ground

A shrill protest as nut is turned and satisfies the pay as earned

For one full day of labour In The Army

So climbs the sun in bucyant height

And falters as if in sudden fright

Of spying comp in blanket tuck | Nay, just one figure taking from a truck

Some waste with which to groom her down

And Spanners

Now thru the camp the Corporal true
Stirring cook and roosters too

t not gray ghost o'er bumper bent examining for scratch or dent

Examining for scratch or dent In Ludguard

Comes the call'rise and shine' Mutterings, cursings down the line

Oblivious to all this rising heat

From neath a truck a pair of fect

Protuding

Rushing figures; noise and din Washing face; scr. ping chin But none compare the gentle stroke

Each curving wheel, each nut, each spoke,

On Vehicle

Now this deting figure meves Tender care its leve it proves Prideful gleams a swimming eye Leve like this can never die This Passion

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Dear Sir. I crave a little space in which to express a few thoughts regarding our Roadhouse which at the time of my writing is to be opened in the near future. Charmingly informal as it shyly nestles in its slowly swinging palms, this oasis of romance must surely become the mecca for all road travellers wearily wandering up this desert isle. Being only forty-five stones throws from the road, the sumptuous comfort provided by an open-air beer garden as well as really cold drinks taken in typically N.Z. uncomfortable little stalls will bring just that heart warming touch of home to the tropical paradise. I feel Sir that the world is indebted to the great and inimitable Joe Kaiser for the zealous and spectacular way in which he has brought this tremendous achievement to a triumphant conclusion...

ODE TO OVEN

We've a Geofge and a George; And a Bob and a Bob;
Now a Ken and a Ken makes three pairs
Plus a Pat and a Pat; And a fowl and a fowl;
We almost can put on some airs.
Now lets give three cheers or sink several beers,
To the day which maybe will dewn;
To a wondering world in our midst will be hurled;
One more Ockey somplete with his scone

LOCAL MEYS

A committee has been set up to investigate the rapid soil erosion on the eastern bank of the river where it passes the tent lines..

A new horror has reared its ugly head in the sappers life. This takes the form of stationary trucks being backed into by other unit drivers.

A new association is in the process of being formed in the camp. Known as the 'Cooks Clique' it permits members to eat in the cookhouse and to receive the best selection of the rations and the finest cuts of the meat before the rank and file are fed.

At the time of going to press we are told that the Div Engs expect to create a furore with their representatives at the sports meeting to be held this Saturday..
