

THE SPOOKY PACK.

Or "The Pack That Cuts Itself."

A new card effect! Yes, new and utterly baffling. A spooky, creepy, uncanny effect that sets people talking. Three cards are chosen from the pack and returned. The magician then places the pack flat on the palm of his outstretched hand and immediately the chosen cards creep slowly out of the pack, one by one, visibly, the pack shifting to let the cards out. A great trick for close-up work. Cards are freely chosen and may be marked. No elastic or springs. Nothing to get out of order. No sleight of hand needed. This is the card effect you have been waiting for. What a hit! What an idea! Brilliantly clever and simple idea that will delight you.

Price, complete with cards and explicit instructions, post paid, 4/6.

THE CUP AND BALL TRICK

A cup, beautifully turned, its cover, and a solid ball, are given for examination. The empty cover is now placed on the cup, and the performer takes the ball, disappears it, and finds it in the cup. The performer now vanishes the ball from the cup, and finds it in his pocket.

CHINA'S REPLY TO JAPAN.

Here is a nice little topical item that will be received with gusto at any smoko. A strip of coloured paper is shown to contain some Oriental writing. Pattering that this is a diplomatic message from Japan to China, he says that immediately it was received it was torn up; and he suits the action to the word by tearing it into small pieces. These are rubbed together and then shown restored with China's message to Japan. AND—there is a big laugh coming, but we cannot explain that here. There is no catch; it is just too good to disclose.

Price 2/6.
